5 FUN FACTS WE BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW...

- 1 The land for the Arizona Biltmore Golf Club & Hotel was originally purchased for $312, or $.25/acre
- 2 The Adobe was originally constructed in 1928 and served as Mrs. Wrigley's (yup, the same one as the chewing gum) barn for many years. The original ceiling was painted at her request and can still be seen in the back half of the restaurant.
- 3 Clark Gable lost his wedding ring on the Adobe course and was ecstatic when an employee found and returned it to him.
- 4 President George H. W. Bush spent 30 minutes after a golf game chatting with Arizona Biltmore Golf Club GM, Dick Bates (go ahead and ask him about it!)
- 5 The Biltmore is commonly known as the birthplace of the Tequila Sunrise and we still serve them here today.
